Re: Title Talk

At the seminar, we discussed a new South Carolina real estate forum for our agents. The web site address is www.scctic.com/forum, and you will need your username and password that you use to create Insured Closing Letters or Over-the-Limits letters to access the forum site. You will have to register initially, but all that is required is an e-mail address, and another username/password. The use of the additional username and password was implemented to allow multiple individuals from a single agency to have their own personal identification on the board. Once you've registered, you'll be able to post new topics, reply to topics, receive e-mail notification when someone else adds to a topic, and even print or e-mail the topics. Claire Manning, Tom Dunlop and Charles Hedgepath will be moderating the board, so please use this resource. If you have issues registering or utilizing the forum, please contact Patrick Leo (Patrick.leo@ctt.com) or Cris Garrick (Cris.garrick@ctt.com) for assistance. Thanks!
